

CAROLINA KOSTNER IS THE FACE OF OVS ACTIVE SPORT TRAINING

Mestre, July 2014 - OVS launches its new Active Sport Training fitness range with an outstanding celebrity face: Carolina Kostner, World and European ice-skating champion.

Trendy design, functional features and comfort are the hallmarks of the OVS "fit4fun" Active Sport Training garments. T-shirts, sweatshirts, bodysuits, rain jackets and trousers in printed or colour-block technical fabrics – sporty and feminine, they adapt to all types of physical activity, from body & mind to outdoor aerobic exercise, and they are also ideal for leisure-wear.

"I really enjoyed interpreting the new OVS ACTIVE SPORT TRAINING range", says Carolina" and I'm especially proud to represent an Italian brand-name. I love fitness, and fashion as well, and I like OVS because of its democratic way of approaching it, at prices that are affordable for everyone and with an up-to-date content and style. I felt great when I wore these items; I liked the texture of the fabrics, the comfort and the design".

Carolina Kostner, world-famous Olympic ice-skating champion, was a bronze-medallist in the Sochi 2014 Winter Olympics, World Champion 2012, and a medallist five times in other World championships (2008 and 2013 silver; 2005, 2011 and 2014 bronze), a five-times European Champion, a medallist in four other European Championships, and the winner of the 2011 figure skating Grand Prix Final.
