

JEAN PAUL GAULTIER FOR OVS

OVS meets the irreverent, fun and audacious creativity of Jean Paul Gaultier to launch an eveningwear capsule collection for both women and men.

The collection offers a contemporary and unconventional take on eveningwear, influenced by urban and streetwear trends. Clothes are designed to be easily mixed and matched to fit every personality.

Jean Paul Gaultier upscale fashion combined with OVS affordable range is offering a rich creative collection, making sophisticated eveningwear easy to wear.

«My collaboration with OVS is a playful collection for the year's end celebration. I wanted something fun and at the same time dressed up, that is why we developed a print with the deck of cards and used so many asymmetrical cuts.»

Sensual, hyper feminine details are mixed to masculine codes in the women's range. A trench is cut short on the front to become a sexy, chic evening gown, while a sartorial suit reveals organza inserts. Sequined decorations in a black and white checked motif appear on a boyish oversized bomber jacket in the collection's iconic game card print. Jean Paul Gaultier's signature Breton stripes pepper Lurex fitted sweaters, while T-shirts feature the designer's signature tattoo-inspired motifs.

The iconic themes of the women's range, such as Japanese-inspired tattoos and Breton stripes, return in the men's lineup. The game card print gives a bold attitude to a T-shirt and washed denim pants. Referring the French designer's most iconic collections, Eighties'-inspired sartorial suits feature coated details, while denim pieces are flocked. Jean Paul Gaultier also mixed and matched block colors with graphic patterns, and revamped its iconic suit jacket with oversized cuts under the arms. Stretch cotton boxer briefs featuring emblematic prints give to classic underwear a cool take.

The Jean Paul Gaultier for OVS collection is completed by iconic accessories, which includes two-tone pumps, masculine flat shoes with elastic straps, a damier intarsia leather clutch flat bag with detachable chain and a silk scarf
